

KPI News
17 May 2024

KEY PATENT INNOVATIONS BECOMES TEAM IRELAND PARTNER

7 May 2024 The Olympic Federation of Ireland today announced that Key Patent Innovations will become official partner to Team Ireland, following an agreement which opens with the Paris 2024 Games. The homegrown Irish company is a global leader in patent licensing, with a field of experts that identify and invest in high value patent-based opportunities.

With less than 100 days until the Paris Olympic Games, Key Patent Innovations has joined the Olympic Federation of Ireland as Official Partner to Team Ireland. With a shared passion for excellence and world class performance, their support will assist Team Ireland in delivering for the athletes and coaches at Paris 2024 and beyond.

Speaking at the announcement, Managing Director for Key Patent Innovations, Angela Quinlan said,

IRISH PATENT LICENCING
COMPANY TO BACK TEAM
IRELAND AT PARIS 2024 AND
BEYOND

“At Key Patent Innovations we are passionate about what we do. As an Irish company, we are proud to work hard and to compete successfully on a global stage. This partnership allows us to support the expertise and hard work of our athletes, giving them the best chances for international success. We are looking forward to an enjoyable journey together over the coming years.”

KEY PATENT INNOVATIONS BECOMES TEAM IRELAND PARTNER

Peter Sherrard, Chief Executive Officer, Olympic Federation of Ireland commented:

“I want to thank Key Patent Innovations for getting behind our athletes and team who will epitomise the best of us on the international stage this summer and during the next cycle. We are proud to partner with Angela and her team, particularly as they represent the best of us. Our partnership with Key Patent Innovations will help us to support aspiring Olympic athletes from communities all over Ireland this summer and through the next Olympic cycle.”

Team Ireland is proudly supported by its primary sponsor, PTSB, and partners, Allianz, Deloitte and Flogas. Key Patent Innovations will now join Team Ireland’s proud partners in getting behind the athletes of Team Ireland.